

Anton Dalli

Specialist Advisory Services Manager

anton.dalli@nexiabt.com

Anton holds a Masters' Degree in Business Administration from Henley Business School, and read a Bachelor of Science degree (Hons) in Computing and Information Systems from the University of London.

Anton has over twenty years of practical business experience within the FMCG industry, which he has gained through holding various senior management positions. Over the years he has acquired the skills and knowledge required for successful business operations. In 2015, he joined the specialist advisory department at Nexia BT in the role of manager. Having gained extensive experience in business planning and company reorganisation he is involved in various projects with clients in the private and public sector mainly revolving around business analysis, planning, reorganisation and project management.