Michelle joined Nexia BT in January 2016 and is responsible for in-house training and providing technical guidance on financial issues. Graduating from the University of Malta with an Honours Degree in Accountancy in 2000, Michelle has over 16 years' experience in the accountancy profession, working within the manufacturing; hospitality; agriculture; and tourism industries.

By working hands-on on a number of projects, she garnered experience with EU Fund Compliance and working in Regulatory Bodies. On the accountancy educational front, Michelle started teaching ACCA in 2003 as director of studies. In 2008, she joined Richard Clarke Academy, as a managing director. She delivers courses in the financial accounting and management accounting ACCA papers. Additionally, since 2004, Michelle has been delivering tutorials in financial accounting to accountancy students reading for their degree at the University of Malta. After obtaining her CPA warrant in 2002, Michelle also obtained the ACCA IFR (International Financial Reporting) Diploma in 2012 and the Post-Graduate Diploma in Financial Management from Heriot-Watt University. She is presently reading for the MSc in Financial Management. Michelle is also a Fellow Member of the Malta Institute of Accountants and a Member of the Malta Institute of Management.
