

FINANCIAL CONTROLLER SERVICES

Nexia BT is:

- a leading company in Malta offering corporate and private client advisory, audit, accounting and tax services
- a member of Nexia International

FINANCIAL CONTROLLER SERVICES

The financial controller is a catalyst in steering and directing the company towards the desired goal of the entity. S/he holds a fiduciary role, working parallel to other departments within the company in developing and assisting financial and non-financial targets.

Nexia BT's financial controller service provides an important management tool for decision-making. We provide you and the management team with the right insight to deliver the planned result both on the short and long-term perspectives through profit maximisation, market segmentation and goodwill retention.

Our outsourcing service is made-to-measure, based on your requirements, the industry in which you operate and the expertise needed. We guarantee a hands-on approach in cash flow planning, finance procuring, tax adherence, payroll management, mergers, group structuring, project-based consultancy, interim advice, and the provision of management accounts and projections.

This service will be your indispensable tool, which will guide your organisation through the all-important early stages of business growth.

OUR SERVICES

Through our financial controller services, your firm will immediately gain access to top tier professionals who have the experience and financial acumen to help you achieve your firm's goals. Our team works closely with you to provide the appropriate level of assistance for your existing operations.

Whether you need temporary assistance to help your business stay strong during transitional periods, or if you are seeking a permanent solution, we can provide the right structures that allow you to focus more on your core business functions.

WHO IS IT FOR?

This outsourcing service will benefit your business venture, as the flexibility of its nature will allow us to adapt to a variety of firm-specific conditions or any particular industry circumstances. This service will be of great benefit to businesses in need of:

- business growth guidance: We will work as a team together with management to anticipate your key requirements at every stage of business growth
- project-based consultancy: Project-based expertise may be offered at any stage of your business' project, from conceptual stage through commissioning stage
- interim and flexible service : our financial controller service is also available on an interim basis, where financial management and the highest levels of functional and industry expertise may be offered to reinforce your executive teams in that critical moment.
